

BRIAN O. DOLAN, ESQ.

12610 Patrick Henry Drive, Suite C, Newport News, VA 23602

brian.dolan@briandolanlaw.com

P: 757.320.0255 | F: 757.687.0741

Brian represents organizations and individuals throughout Virginia in a wide-ranging array of litigation and non-litigation matters, with an emphasis on representing banks, credit unions and other creditors/lenders. He also focuses on representing property owners, purchasers, developers and lenders in all manner of real estate disputes.

EDUCATION

James Madison University; B.S., Communication, Cum Laude, 1990

Catholic University of America; J.D., 1993

Law Review; Note and Comment Editor

Phi Delta Phi; President

American Jurisprudence Award (Highest Grade in Class), Trial Practice

MILITARY EXPERIENCE

Commissioned Officer

United States Army and Army Reserve, 1990 – 2002

ASSOCIATIONS

Newport News Bar Association, 2008- Present

Board Member 2016 – 2018

Virginia State Bar, 1993- Present

Real Property Section, 2010 – Present

Title Insurance Committee Chairman, 2010-2013

Health Law Section, Former Board of Governors Member

Virginia Bar Association, Member

Boyd-Graves Conference, Member 2002 – 2020

Virginia War Museum Board of Trustees, 2011 – 2019

Treasurer 2013 – 2018

Newport News YMCA Board, 2014 – 2019

Chairman 2017 – 2018

Vice Chairman and Chairman Elect 2016

PRESS & PUBLICATIONS

Credit Union Times, Contributor 2014-2016

Virginia Business Magazine, Legal Elite 2015, Civil Litigation

Guest, clubroadcast Talk show, "Foreclosures Up in 2015? What?," March 2015

"Mechanic's Liens: Selected Issues for Real Estate Lawyers," The Fee Simple, co-author, May 2011

"Title Insurers are Entitled to Recovery Under a Virginia Settlement Agent Surety Bond," The Fee Simple, co-author May 2010

"Misconceptions of Contractual Indemnification Against CERCLA Liability," 42 Cath. U.L. Rev. 179, Fall 1992